

City of Bunker Hill Village Press Release

Date: December 21, 2016
Contact: Karen Glynn, City Administrator
Phone: 713-467-9762

Bunker Hill Village Honors John Glover, Public Servant of the Year Carter Bliss and Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church, Neighbor of the Year And Bunker Hill Staff

The City of Bunker Hill Village recently honored former Councilmember, John Glover as the City's Public Servant of the Year at the City's annual holiday dinner. The City also recognized Mr. Carter Bliss and Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church as the City's "Neighbor of the Year."

The City Council is pleased to hold their holiday dinner on an annual basis to thank and recognize the many volunteers that make Bunker Hill Village a great place to live. "This year the City has 42 volunteers that make up the City Council, Boards, Commissions and Committees. Residents and Neighbors working hand in hand is what makes Bunker Hill great!" stated Mayor Jay Williams.

John Glover, Public Servant of the Year

John Glover served on the City Council since his election in May 2012. Mr. Glover was the Chairman of the City's Drainage Committee and the liaison to the Planning and Zoning Commission. Mr. Glover had a significant impact on drainage in Bunker Hill with the update to the City's Development Ordinances and the City's Master Drainage Plan.

Carter Bliss and Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church, Neighbor of the Year

Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church and Carter Bliss, Facilities Director, were presented the City's 2016 "Neighbor of the Year." MDPC continues to work with the City on needs including hosting National Night Out; coordination with construction projects and easement needs; partnerships for landscaping; MDPC even provided golf carts this year for the 4th of July "puppies!" Thank you MDPC for your partnership!

Bunker Hill Staff

Gama Escamilla, Public Works Team Leader celebrated his 25th year with the City in 2016. Steve Smith, Building Official/Public Works Director has contributed 10 years with the City. These men are both assets to Bunker Hill providing their expertise and professionalism in all they do. The City of Bunker Hill Village takes great pride in these men and their staff.

Mayor Jay Williams congratulates Bunker Hill Village's 2016 Public Servant of the Year, John Glover.

Mayor Jay Williams congratulates Bunker Hill Village's 2016 Neighbor of the Year, Carter Bliss, Building Director at Memorial Drive Presbyterian Church

