

Meet Frances Carter Stephens

Frances Carter Stephens has been showing her drawings, paintings, and conceptual pieces since 2010 in solo and group shows in Houston and the surrounding region. Her work has been in juried exhibitions including The Big Show 2010, Assistance League of Houston Celebrates Texas Art 2013 and 2018, Texas National 2016 and 2018.

Stephens began drawing and painting at an early age in her native Virginia. She began formal art studies in high school, and studied theater design, studio art, and art history at the University of Virginia (BA with Distinction) and The University of Texas at Austin (MFA studies and MLS). She moved to Houston in 1983, where she lives and works. For more information about the artist, please visit her website, www.francescarterstephens.com or see her on Instagram at fcstephensartist.